Weekly update

Dear Parents/Carers,

What a first week back! Classes are enjoying getting to know their new topics and have already engaged so well in their new learning. Class 3 are particularly looking forward to their 'Romans' topic and Class 2 can't wait to explore 'Habitats'.

Next Tuesday is Remembrance Day. We will be completing activities across all classes on Tuesday with a Remembrance Day focus and hold a special assembly for the children at 11.00. The British Legion poppy appeal box will be in the office until then - you can pop in to buy a poppy or children can bring a cash donation in with them to buy them at breaktimes. Thank you for your kind donations so far.

Class 4 have had letters sent for their visit to Alcester Academy next week. All children will be watching the high school performance of Greece. We can't wait to hear all about it!

Next Friday is Children in Need. Children may bring in a donation, starting at £1, and wear non-uniform with something spotty! This may be spotty ears, a spotty t-shirt or simply spotty socks!

Classes 1 and 2 are finalising this year's Nativity play. Look out next week for scripts and costume lists. Please speak to Mrs de Leysin or Miss Guttridge if you have any further questions. I hope you have a wonderful weekend.

With love,

Mrs Amie Wilson-Rhone
