Weekly update

Dear Parents/Carers,

School is looking rather festive now we are into December. Nativity lines are being learnt, carols are filling the corridors and Christmas decorations are getting us all into the spirit of the season. A huge thank you to Kevin at Limebridge Rural Services for the generous donation of our 12 foot Christmas tree for the school hall!

Class 4 consolidated their RE learning this week with a trip to the local church. Thank you to Alcester Minster to organising hands-on, multi-sensory stations where the children completed embroidery, stained glass and origami and thought about how Jesus is reflected in the Church.

Our Christmas Fayre is happening tonight! We can't wait to see you all there, celebrating Christmas and joining in with the action. Thank you to the FoHA for their hard work and for making the hall look so amazing for what will be a fantastic event!

Year 4 begin their Muddy Mondays sessions next Monday. Please arrive at school in suitable long-sleeved clothing, with waterproofs and wellies in a named bag.

Our pantomime trips are next Thursday (oh no, they're not!) - please log into MCaS to ensure you have paid for the trip.

We still have plenty of tickets available in the school office for both Nativity performances and the Carols Around the Tree concert. If you haven't yet got your tickets, you have until Thursday 11th to email the office or pop in to the school office.

With festive wishes,

Mrs Amie Wilson-Rhone
